Further to our previous correspondence, I herewith advise that I still await the ruling from SA Revenue Services on the amount of income tax payable, if any, on interest that accrued on the funds under my control.

The latest correspondence from SARS indicated that they await an opinion from one of their As previously indicated, claimants are requested not to phone SARS.

I confirm that I will advise all claimants as soon as the issue is resolved, whereafter I can draft a further distribution schedule.

In the absence of any developments, in the interim, a further communication can be expected by 16 May 2018.
